full SB-IRB, for which I have received training and attended full board meetings in Tampa.

Chair, 2017-18, Co-chair, 2013-15, member 2018-19, Awards and Rewards Committee. Upon receiving the 2013 Service Award, I became a member of this committee, which I co-chaired with Dr. Stephen Rushton. During our tenure, we revised the guidelines for the committee. We also proposed two important additions, both of which our chancellor granted: an additional award for research by an early scholar; and an increase in the award, from $500 to $1,000. I received the award for research in 2017 and was again the chair of the committee.

External Reviewer, USFSM Student Research Colloquium, 2013-2017 This involves

Chair, Sarasota Faculty Senate Executive Committee, 2011-Aug 2013 (member, 2009-2011). Prior to having a representative FS, that Senate had an executive committee consisting of one rep from each of the colleges. We would meet monthly to set the agenda for the FS meetings and consider any issues that came up and how we might handle them at the open meetings.

Member, conference planning for Duvall Family Studies Conference, 2012-2013. This is a conference that has grown substantially since its inception, now drawing attendees from many states. I also gave two keynotes at two of these conferences.

Member, USF System Faculty Council, April 2011-Aug 2013. As the USFSM Faculty Senate President, I was a member of this newly formed group that oversees changes, such as restructuring, on the campuses, and advises the Provost and President about whether or not such changes follow correct policy and procedures.

Committee member of ACEAC, Aug 2011-Aug 2013. This commitment was also directly due to being FS President. The committee reviewed new program proposals submitted by the campuses to determine whether the proposals included due diligence regarding needs for the program and if such programs were duplicated at other Florida State institutions.

USF Women in Leadership and Philanthropy lifetime member, Mentoring Committee member. WISE (Women Igniting Student Engagement) member marketing subcommittee for 2017 Spring Symposium.

Member, USF World Task force on Strategic Alliances, 2012. This was an ad-hoc committee to which I was invited by Dr. Roger Brindley, VP of USF World. We considered various new alliances with international universities.

Member, USF Faculty Research Committee on Holocaust and Genocide Studies, 2011-2013. This committee was led by two USF Tampa librarians, both of whom have moved on to positions at other universities. We held regular meetings during which we were informed by members of their work regarding genocide and war. I presented my work on the LRA war to the group.

Member and past chair, Global Initiatives Committee, 2009-2011. This was a committee of faculty interested in international activities for both faculty and students. Our accomplishments during my time as chair were to bring representatives from Tampa twice/semester to inform students about study abroad opportunities; and we instituted WE Week (Worldwide Engagement), during which we held a series of events in the spring to familiarize students with international issues and opportunities.

African Studies Association of Australasia and the Pacific (AFSAAP). Editorial board member for the organization's journal, Australasian Review in African Studies, 2014-present.
