3RD ANNUAL UNDERGRADUATE HUMANITIES CONFERENCE

JANUARY 27 - 28, 2022

USF, TAMPA MARSHALL STUDENT CENTER

Welcome from the Humanities Institute

Moderator: Liz Kicak, M.F.A.

Moderator: Liz Kicak, M.F.A.

Oroonoko

Moderator: Nicole Discenza, Ph.D.

Moderator: Holly Donahue Singh, Ph.D.

Moderator: Lindy Davidson, M.Div, Ph.D.

A Woman's Work: Redefning Modern Masculinity and Feminity in James

"A London's Summer Morning" as a Refection of the True Romantic Era

History of the Nun The Fair Vow-Breaker

The

Moderator: Liz Kicak, M.F.A.

Angelica is a literary studies English major fnishing up her fnal semester at USF. She is at USF, and hopes to publish their fction in novels and television someday.

cian. He's involved in a research lab at Moff tt Cancer Center where he studies Chronic a nonproft bicycle shop. Mat plans on graduating in Spring of 2022 and start a Master's Delta Epsilon, and a club he started on his own dedicated to the feld of orthopedics and sentative for the English Major across all three campuses. Kyden is a published fction, start a nonproft to help injured athletes from disadvantaged backgrounds who have had el. After graduating in the Spring of 2022, Kyden plans to become certifed as an EMT Biology. She works at Moff tt Cancer Center and is involved in volunteer work with the writing. He is a huge fan of literary realism, specif cally socialist realism, as he is sur